

On the fourth Thursday of November an American tradition is held called Thanksgiving. For many this day has been designated as a special day to give thanks to “God”. The origins of this celebration is believed to be a symbol of unity and perseverance against a harsh winter held by the Pilgrims and the Native American Indians. However, there is no evidence to support this. Most historians place a mythical date for the first thanksgiving celebration; the year they claim it took place is 1621. Note that since the arrival of Christopher Columbus (1492) the indigenous population of the Americas were being tortured and enslaved. This is also true of those that were met by the Pilgrims. Nahum 3:1 “Woe to the bloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;”

The true documented history of thanksgiving is of a “bloody city” and “robbery”. The story you have been told is “full of lies” and those that follow it are the prey. The first official day of thanksgiving and feasting was proclaimed by Governor Winthrop of the Massachusetts Bay Colony in 1637. He did this to give thanks for the safe return of the militia who had gone to what is now Mystic Connecticut to participate in the massacre of over 700 Pequot men, women and children. Besides this the Wampanoag who were in the fabled thanksgiving dinner with the Pilgrims were slaughtered. The whites went after the Wampanoag with guns, swords, cannons, and torches. Chief Metacomet, the son of the famous chief Massasoit who helped the Pilgrims and had a peace treaty, his body was horribly dismembered. For twenty five years Metacomet’s skull was displayed on a pike above the whites’ village. His wife and son were sold into slavery in the West Indies.

Don’t be surprised that such information is kept hidden from our people, especially in the school system. For God said, Deuteronomy 33:29 “Happy art thou, O Israel [the Blacks, Hispanics, and Native Americans]: who is like unto thee, O people saved by the LORD, the shield of thy help, and who is the sword of thy excellency! and thine enemies shall be found liars unto thee; and thou shalt tread upon their high places.” We must come out of the lies and not participate with the sins of this country. Revelations 18:4 “And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.”

The truth cannot be hidden from God who documented the cruel acts that were going to be committed against his people. See, Deuteronomy 28:49-51. The Bible explains how our people will be deceived, lose their heritage, and will no longer be thanking God. 1st Corinthians 10:20 “But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice [the celebrations of the other nations], they sacrifice to devils, and not to God [they are not giving thanks to God]: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.” Verse 21: “Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.” This tradition of men celebrates the American Holocaust, our downfall and murder, it is impossible to give thanks to God on this day!
